4th June, 2015.

Dear Parents,

As part of our preparation for First Communion, all of our students are invited to attend a parish Mass and receive their own Mass book. These booklets form an important resource for the children over the next few weeks as they continue to prepare for this very special sacrament. Since you were unable to attend last weekend, I am therefore writing again to invite you to attend Mass this weekend so that your child can receive his/her Mass book and complete this part of our sacramental preparation.

When you arrive before Mass, please let Father Martin know that you and your child are present and he will invite them forward during the mass. He will then present a copy of “The Australian Children’s Mass Book” to them. He will also bestow on them a special blessing before they return to their seats. Mass times are Saturday evening at 6pm and Sunday at 10am.

Don’t forget we have a list of jobs for parents wishing to be a part of the First Communion liturgies if you are interested, please let me know. I hope you and your child are able to join with our parish community this weekend.

Yours sincerely
Jayne O’Callaghan
